

IPGA SPONSORED NATIONAL SEMINAR ON
“Recent Advances in Drug Development & Research”

ORGANISED BY

P.D.M.COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

ON

03rd March 2012 (Saturday)

P.D.M. College of Pharmacy organized a seminar on “Recent Advances in Drug Development & Research”, on 03rd March 2012. The said seminar was attended by 250 delegates from the Haryana and Uttaranchal, U.P. and other states. The various renowned personalities in the seminar were Mr. Atul Kumar Nasa (Chief Guest) Assistant Drug Controller, Govt. of Delhi, Mr. P. P. Sharma (Guest of Honour) Rtd. Dept. Drug Controller, Dr. Paramjeet Singh (Guest of Honour) principle women college of Engg., Mrs. Harvinder Popli (Guest of Honour) Director, Corporate Business Development, Mrs. Jaspreet Kaur, Head- Quality Assurance, Fortis Clinical Research Ltd., Faridabad, Mr. Sanjay Gupta, CEO, Catalyst Clinical Services Ltd. and other dignitaries.

The programme was started with Saraswati Vandana and lightning of lamp by Mr. Atul Kumar Nasa and other dignitaries.

Dr. Arun Garg, Director, PDM College of Pharmacy, induced energetic clinical fundamentals, regarding the objectives of the seminar and sparkled the programme by the warm welcome of all the dignitaries of the seminar.

Mr. Atul Kumar Nasa, appreciated the efforts of the Dr. Arun Garg for his untiring efforts in the building up the future of the college and gave a detailed presentation on the scheduled H & X, a proposed amendment. He also emphasized on the urgent need to implement these amendments by the government in order to curb the antimicrobial resistance.

Mrs. Harvinder Popli appreciated the efforts of college and addressed the people regarding the global marketing and opportunities. She told that Indian Pharmaceutical Industry got 5th rank in bulk drug manufacturing all over the world. She also addressed about the various opportunities in the Indian Pharmaceutical Industry.

Mr. P. P. Sharma addressed the audience by his experienced knowledge about the use, safety and efficacy of herbal medicine. He also told about research guidelines and evaluation of the herbal medicine. He also emphasized on the steps to be followed for the research methodology for the herbal medicine.

Mrs. Jaspreet Kaur addressed the delegates regarding the bioequivalence and bioavailability studies, protocol development and various pharmacokinetic parameter of the drug development.

Ms Kirti Yadav addressed the people regarding the relevance of publishing and tips for preparing a successful eCTD, with more and more countries aligning with the eCTD publishing is bound to be a flourishing career in the future for Pharma student.

Mr. S.K Gambhir enlightened the audience regarding the current scenario and protection of patents. Dr. Md. Imaran Khan enlightened the delegates about intellectual property rights and its requirements. Mr. Sanjay Gupta presented the avenues / careers in clinical research. He also delivered that the promotions & career enhancement in the area of clinical research is tremendous. Pharmacy Graduates and Post Graduates can chose their careers in clinical research by undertaking a structured course and training in clinical research. He also presented an exhaustive interactive session on the various stages in clinical research.

During the programme various meritorious student of PDM College of Pharmacy were awarded with the trophies and certificates. A number of delegates presented their posters during scientific session. The seminar ended with vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Hema Chaudhary, HOD, Pharmaceutics department.